We can create dynamite now - a blacksmith located in the estate kajacek: We can craft dynamite now - the blacksmith is located in the manor It is already in the opening of the post. Super helpful, thanks for sharing Can help me in the component: Gazerman or there are only armor gazerman? Only armor, there is no such component. Elite for ease when you level 100 and aim for the ultimate. It takes about 20 minutes for me with my current gear. Could be quicker if I ignore most things and only go for the bosses who drop the Krieg set pieces. I'm sorry for the typos doing it from memory. Picked up the route from watching the Malagasy video. Malmouth Rift Rift Head South and Kill the Giant Ether Thing (Not Moving... Probability of ether crystal, ether shard, ether cluster) West in the Burning Basement entrance of Kill Terronox (MI, % chance of Krieg to install a piece of drop, legendary, dynamite IIRC). Normally, it is in one of three places with one with 1 guaranteed dynamite (although I got 3 or so on occasion). The portal from the Crown Hill Building North West portal will have dynamite breasts (1 for passage?), although I think I got it the first 2 or 3 times I went there go south of the portal Jump in the nearest building on the left side of the stairs, around the wall down the stairs and go north Alexander will sometimes spawn to the left of the door Jump to the allegiance of the shrine to kill all go in the building northeast of The Shrine Kill Valexiater (MI %, % probability of Krieg piece drop is probably legendary or mythical drop, ethereal mutagen, atheral missive drop). If it's a borderline battle for you, draw her out of the building so she's less likely to be healed by the mobs that come to bolster her if you pop a big AoE spell that grabs their attention. Cross the path to Fleshworks Alkensandr sometimes spawn right a few passages in Kill your double (loot her breasts if there is one) The path to Krieg Alexander is sometimes spawn on the way to Krieg Kill Krieg (% chance of Krieg setpiece drop, other odd mythical drops) Loot his breasts (sometimes there are two, and sometimes not or just body) if you want to kill Theodin again you have to kill two places around the map I have to kill two places around the map. tend to avoid it as it still gives me a bit of trouble if I don't pop the essential oil for extra ethereal damage. -Legends and myths (estimate at least one per launch, though duplicates are definitely a thing) - A lot of high-level green gear (level 80ish-95) - lots of components -Dynamite-Multiple MIs -Krieg's Set components - Aetherial Missives -Aetherial Mutagens -Sometimes drawings (higher chance if you get Alexander on our run through) - Tainted Brain Matter -Blood Chton (probably from Alexander) I made about 20? times and I'm still looking for a Krieg set helmet (there's every other set piece in duplicate or triple). I would assume the rewards are even more on Ultimate, but it can also be more tedious because the higher points in a higher chance of dying if you are not quite there power-wise. Oh and check out the Steelcap area merchant heirloom drawings when you go to sell everything. A small note you can't generate in the Steelcap area, so if you want to do this route several times finish your game in Resistance Hideout or Coven, so you have less away to scroll on the portal map to click on the Malmouth Outskirts portal. Example Haul (About as good as you're going to get) It turned out to be a really good catch in one run. Not typical. I would say 2-3 Mythical elements is typical. The items in the Hynam box are the various greens that I decided to sell. Alexander cast a rebuke of epic war of all things and some greenery. The main inventory window. Eldritch Essence. For lotus, does anyone have a better idea than just a nemesis farm? I think I got one lotus from the legendary explosion, but only one of more than a hundred attempts. I've been doing a lot of flowering farming lately and I believe the best source for them is actually undergrowth now. Now that killing enemies gives blooms too, a hunting area that is filled with bloom dropping enemies usually gives a good amount. You can get an extra boss spawn there by receiving the Swillius award from Barrowholm. I usually combine undergrowth to work with Gloomwald Crossing one for 4-5 stumps and finish in Carraxus den. the route with the map I made is not so useful You hunt blooms only, since it only has 2 stumps and requires a lot of walking to hit all the treat enemy spawn spots. Speaking of bounties, here are some of the bounty I use: Barrowholm: Swillius - Extra Boss in the Undergrowth Black Legion: Sicrix - Extra Boss in the Mountain Depths, for Agriculture Rift Slice Scourgers Coven: Habnor - Extra Boss in Gloomwald (if you make The Gloomwald Trove Run) Devil's Crossing: Bruiser generates an extra boss next to Cronley Witch Gods: Reynar - Extra Boss North of Hell's Waste Rift (good for creating a cult reputation), and as a less effective alternative: Varnox For the rest of the faction, I didn't list anything. Guys, can you share your itineraries for mutating scale? silverhand31: Guys, can you share your itineraries for a mutated scale? I'm not 100% sure of this, but iirc Slith have a good chance of dropping them. You can try hargate island farming a couple of times and see if it works for you. I've set a guide to formatting the new forum. I think. Don't know how to make drop-down spoilers here. Avyctes: Hide the details (image) O. Me famous. → the next page of → Home Category of Frequently Asked Questions/Guidelines for the Privacy Policy service Crate Entertainment is the latest secret boss who has been added to the expansion of The Forgotten Gods. Since this whole quest is hidden, you won't be able to kill Crate Entertainment just going through the game and you'll miss out on a couple of great rewards. Crate of Entertainment's secret quest is only available on Ultimate Difficulty in Grim Dawn, and there is no entry into the quest log. Unlocking the boss's secret Entertainment box, and finishing it, of course, will reward you with a Dedication Sanctuary and two really good, special legendary items that any collector will want. The images in this article were taken from Luzzifus on Steam. The acquisition of Chillheart Transition to the vanguard of the three areas will be crucial in getting Chillheart's Legendary Sword. When you get there, search for a green circle that will apply damage over time when you stand in it. Chillheart will appear on the ground for you to pick up and make sure you save it. If you play hardcore, this part can be hard for you as you don't have to die! Make sure to use a health potion, ether cluster or any other shielding spell. For those of you who play on Softcore, this part shouldn't be a problem. Finding six secret seals of conclave from three areas is the next part of your search for Crate Entertainment's secret boss. Once you get there you'll notice the hidden basement near the cult Dreeg area. Inside the hidden basement, you will find a chest, urn and a secret note of knowledge inside the Unassuming Box. Destroy the humble box and it will give you that there are 6 hidden seals through the expansion of the Forgotten Gods. Six Print Places Now that you know what the secret of the six seals is, and what role they play in the knowledge of this box entertainment secret quest, you will have to find and destroy them. Six seals are morphing like Unassuming Crates (you've seen one before). Once the last of the humble boxes have been destroyed you will get an eerie message about whether endless visions of sand will overwhelm your mind. The second secret seal is located north of the Temple City of Oshir, and you will find it near the end of this hidden passage. The third secret seal will take you a little time to find as the Sunbane Oasis area has many bridges and passages. Although, the second seal should be located northeast of the Kairan Docks Fault. Following the Vanguard area of the Three Rifts, you get to a broken wall that opens the passage to the fourth secret seal. The fifth secret seal is hidden behind a broken wall south of the Corvan City Fault. The sixth secret seal will have you travel through two destructible walls after the Eldritch Sun Fault Tomb and once you have destroyed it you are ready to move on to the next part of Crate Entertainment's secret quest. Crate Entertainment Earth Logo Search Crate Entertainment Land logo is the next step to our Crate Entertainment Secret quest step-by-step guide. During your playing time, you may have even passed it without knowing what it meant. Note - be sure to take Chillheart with you as it is important for this part of Crate of Entertainment's secret quest. Going to Cairan Docks and placing the area shown in the screenshot will put you right on the Crate Entertainment land logo, once you stand on it you will unlock a hidden passage that will help you inside the Bonebleach pool. Progressing NE through the Bonebleach Pool will take you to the next part, but be careful it's going to check if you're worthy of it in the first place. As you walk through the Bonebleach Basin you will encounter a deadly sandstorm that is going to damage over time on your character. In order to survive the sandstorm, you will have to use your character's leeches and health potions as well as ethereal clusters. Having a motion skill can prove invaluable as well, and make sure to use safe places where a sandstorm can't hurt you (their location is shown below). Once you are at the altar, use Chillheart to activate it as it opens a portal to the edge of reality. Note - bring a skeleton key if you want to finish the Temple of Devotion in this quest. Fighting Crate Entertainment on the edge of reality When entering the edge of reality, you find yourself in a room with a Dedication Sanctuary (which takes the skeleton key to recovery) and 5 colored levers. You have to pull them out in the right order. If you make a mistake, they will be reset in a few seconds. Search the box Once you are teleported into the realm of reality you will find will find room with a shrine of devotion and five different levers. Pulling levers in order: white, yellow, green, blue and purple will open the door behind the Dedication Sanctuary. A hidden door will take you to a new area that has many larvae. The goal now is to find and kill the perfectly ordinary oversized Maggot, which will open the portal for you to the next area. Once you have taken the Maggot portal, you will enter the area of the checkpoint that leads to the last secret area of the devils crossing. Inside this area, you will find Crate Entertainment's secret boss, who is accompanied by other allied box enemies that will split into small enemies and freeze you. When you've killed Crate Entertainment, he'll drop the Softly Funny Box-legendary helmet and yet he has a 25% chance of giving up on Wilhelm Wondrous Wargem who is the most popular aligning amulet in Grim Dawn. As you beat Crate Entertainment boss one goal the damage builds to thrive in this fight because you want not to cause small boxes because they will freeze you. Thus, luring Crate of Entertainment will play a crucial role in this fight to make it a lot easier and make sure to stay in range like a facetanking boss is incredibly dangerous (RIP's HC).
